

Dirty Rock

You say that you don't wanna know
What's it called or how it goes
My girlish little melody
Burns your ears when I sing

You hate how I move to the flow
You say it hurts your sturdy, man ego
You try to hide your eyes from me
Because you don't want me to see

That you like it, too
You start to move to my sound
And tap your leg on the ground
'Cause you can't resist

My dirty, angry, bitchy rock (x2)
You say you don't understand
How I can move on demand
To my dirty, angry, bitchy rock

You like it, too...
I know you do...

You start to twitch to my sound
And I can see your feet tap the ground
You try to show your manly power
But I can hear you sing in the shower
So even though you won't admit
Now I know you like my beat

Yes, you like it too
You start to move to my sound
And put your leg on the ground
Because you can't resist

You like my dirty, angry, bitchy rock (x2)
You start to understand
How I can move on demand
To my dirty, angry, bitchy rock

You like it, too...
I know you do...

Yes, you like it...
You start to feel it...
You can't ignore it anymore...
You arrogant fool, you know there is no rule
You know you're gonna fall
When you hear my sound
You start to scream my name,
You'll take it to your grave
'Cause you can't resist

You like my dirty, angry, bitchy rock (x2)
So now you understand how I can move on demand
To my dirty, angry, bitchy rock

My dirty...
My angry rock...
